Evening Book Group

Is meeting at 7:00, Monday, April 29th in Eidskog Room

Milo and Betty Lou Oppegard are our hosts and they have decided to host the gathering at Hope Lutheran because Milo will be showing a video on the topic of GLOBAL WARMING and the larger screen and equipment will make for better viewing. Please let them know if you are able to attend: Telephone 1-651-270-2712. Our discussion will focus on the book "A Global Warming Primer" - A slim volume of about 100 pages that covers all the basic issues of our changing climate in an easy-to-read question-and-answer format. The questions match those I have been asked many times by nonscientists and include the common arguments challenging human causes of climate change, as well as its impacts.)

Because of the video presentation, purchasing the book is optional this month, but the book is available from Abebooks.com as well as Amazon if you choose to order a copy for yourself. An Additional recommended resource is An Inconvenient Truth by Al Gore.

Great Opportunity for HOPE's Gardeners

The Property committee is requesting volunteers to oversee the location and plantings around the outdoor worship building as well as the location of the walking paths. If you are interested please contact Olive at the office via email hopelutheranoffice.rf@gmail.com or phone 715-425-9750

Prayer Requests

One of the privileges of being a part of the body of Christ is the opportunity to share in the joy and the sorrow of others. If you have a special prayer request or would like to place someone on the prayer chain, please contact the church office via email hopelutheran.rf@gmail.com or call 715-425-9750, and we will make sure to add that person to our prayer list.

HOPE also has an email Prayer Chain. If you would like to participate in praying for people asking for our prayers, please contact Sarah Bondhus at sarahbondhus@gmail.com.

If you would like to know more about what's happening at HOPE please contact the office. Olive will be happy to send you Ministry Reports, Council Minutes and Financial Reports.
