

A Blessing for Holy Trinity Sunday

This Sunday is “Holy Trinity Sunday” when we acknowledge and celebrate our Triune God. It is a day set aside to mark the mystery of the holy “three in one” and “one in three.”

I must admit, a festival day dedicated to a church doctrine does very little to enliven me; doctrines rarely do. There is no perfect way to discuss the Holy Trinity. There is no perfect explanation because nearly every attempt to explain it is wrapped up in some form of heresy. So, as we enter this particular day of the church year, we have no need for articulate answers. The best way to engage in such a day as this, is simply to allow ourselves the grace to be in awe. Our God, is indeed an awe-some God.

We cannot comprehend the fullness of God. But our praise is not contingent on our understanding. No one, least of all Christ himself, is asking us to submit a dissertation on the Trinity. We are only asked to believe and even in that effort, we ask the Holy Mystery that is God, to help our unbelief. Today, I share a special Holy Trinity Blessing with you, taken from “Speak It Plain: Words for Worship and Life Together” by Meta Herrick Carlson, which gives legitimacy to that wonder and awe.

Let's forget for today
the urge to sort God out
with formula or creed.

Let this be a field trip
to dance in the throne room,
to squeeze in among angels
and sing wonder that does not need proving.

Let those holies resound
in that shining hall, and we'll smile
because there is enough,
and mystery does not need solving,
only adoration and company
with the One who was and is and will be even still.

Let's forget for today
we prefer knowing for certain,
and instead rejoice
in the fullness of love.

COMMUNION BREAD RECIPE

Sift dry ingredients (important!) together three times

2 c whole wheat flour

1 c white flour

1 & 1/4 tsp baking powder

1 & 1/4 tsp salt

Stir in 4 tsp oil. Set aside

Mix wet ingredients together until dissolved:

3/4 cup + 2 Tbsp very hot water (minimum of 180 degrees F)

3 Tbsp honey

3 Tbsp molasses

Add wet ingredients to dry ingredients and mix well. Dough should be slightly sticky.

Do not knead. Divide into four balls and flatten each into a 1/4 inch thick disk. With a knife, score the top of each loaf into four pie-shaped sections, so that the sections can be more easily broken off while serving. Lay the loaves on a baking sheet. Bake at 350 degrees for 10 minutes. Remove from oven and brush the tops of the loaves with oil. Bake an additional 5-8 minutes. Let cool.

Yield: four 8 oz. loaves. Wrap well, date, and store in refrigerator if bringing in that same month, otherwise place in freezer.

COMMUNION BREAD BAKERS

- ◆ We have been using 2 loaves of bread per Sunday. You can store unused loaves in the refrigerator.
- ◆ Please don't hesitate to ask for help. We are willing to walk through the process with you.

CALLING ALL BREAD BAKERS!

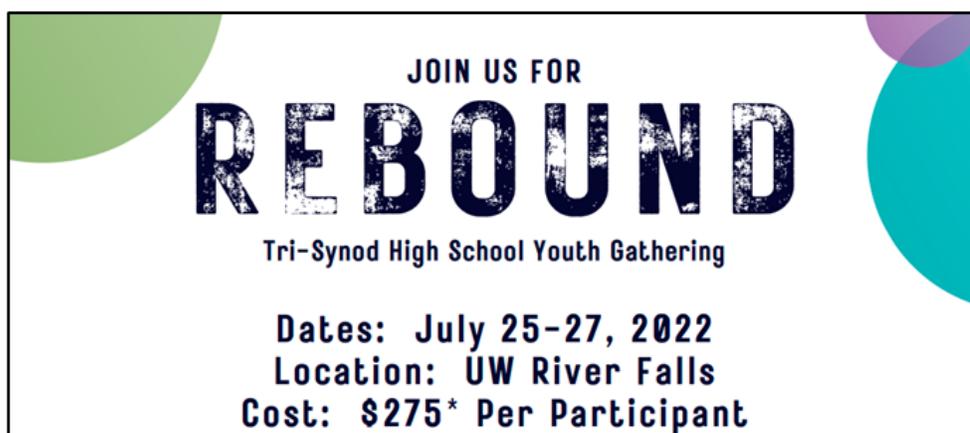

Since we have resumed using bread for Holy Communion, we are in need of people we can schedule to bake bread throughout the year! You can sign up HERE if you'd like to bake for a future month!

This Week at HOPE June 8, 2022

Since the beginning of the war in Ukraine on February 24, millions of people have fled the country and are seeking refuge in neighboring countries including Hungary, Moldova, Poland, Romania and Slovakia. There are major humanitarian concerns for both internally displaced people and refugees. Many of these Ukrainians fleeing their homes need shelter and such basic necessities as food, water and toiletries. Care for people also includes pastoral and psychological support to address the trauma they've endured.

Lutheran Disaster Response is accompanying our companions in Ukraine, Hungary, Poland, Romania and Slovakia, as well as such ecumenical partners as Lutheran World Federation and Church World Service, in their humanitarian responses to the crisis. These partners provide refugees with immediate support and supplies such as food, blankets, water and hygiene kits.

Your gifts will support people impacted by this crisis. Gifts designated to "Eastern Europe Crisis" will be used in full (100%) for direct response to assist those affected.

IN-PERSON WORSHIP VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

Did you know that you can volunteer to help with parts of worship AT ANY TIME!!!

Use THIS GOOGLE DOC LINK to sign-up to assist with our in-person worship!

Greeters, readers, communion set-up & servers, acolytes, ushers, Assisting Ministers & coffee fellowship hosts are all needed!

We pray you seriously consider serving your faith family in this way!

UPDATE TO HOPE'S COVID GUIDELINES

3.16.22 Update

O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; his steadfast love endures forever! This is the Lord's doing; it is marvelous in our eyes. This is the day that the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it. -Psalm 118: 1,23-24

On Tuesday, March 15, the HOPE ministry council met and discussed our next most faithful steps in responding to Covid-19. Early in the pandemic, we committed to following the advice put forth by our local health department professionals, specifically that of the St. Croix County Health Department. So, today we are excited to announce an update to our Covid protocols, in alignment with the St. Croix County Health Department's update effective on March 7, 2022!

You can find the SCCHD most recent information at the following links:

Current Covid-19 Guidance

Current Covid-19 County Level to determine current guidance

HOPE will follow the county's active recommendations based on this chart:

Level	Stay up to date on vaccines	Get tested if you have symptoms	Wear a mask
Low (Green)	Strongly Recommended	Strongly Recommended	Optional
Medium (Yellow)	Strongly Recommended	Strongly Recommended	Encouraged. Those at high-risk should talk to healthcare provider.
High (Orange)	Strongly Recommended	Strongly Recommended	Strongly Recommended

We are currently in a LOW (Green) level in our county, so HOPE is currently making masks optional inside our building.

As we move forward, we definitely enter a "new normal." We trust God to offer new ministry possibilities as we continue faithfully navigating this unique season! As we make this next faithful step, we encourage you to keep the following in mind:

1. While masks are optional as of TODAY, our masking policy WILL LIKELY CHANGE BASED ON RISK LEVEL. Please be prepared to be flexible as needed.
2. Please be respectful of the individual/family choice to wear or not wear a mask. There is no need for additional commentary about someone's choice. Trust that every person is making the best choice for themselves. Please still be respectful of people's personal space. This is a big adjustment for some people, and a simple, "is it ok if I hug you?" or "Is it ok for me to sit by you?" goes a long way. It is ok to tell someone you are not yet comfortable with close contact.

A few other notes:

1. Holy Communion: We began processing forward for the celebration of Holy Communion. Pastor will once again distribute the elements to you, with some offered for you to pick up if you prefer. As always, the pastor can come to you as needed! For those worshiping from home, please remember the Eucharist is intended to be celebrated in Christian community, within the context of worship, and at-home communion is being practiced only until we can all safely return together. Pastor is always available for homebound communion visits.

2. Offering: We will resume passing the offering plate for in-person worship as soon as we have ushers to assist. Online giving opportunities remain in perpetuity and you are encouraged to sign up!

Fellowship Time: We have been able to have fellowship for many weeks now, but have not had people willing to serve it. We would LOVE to resume this practice. You can sign up to host this time on our HOPE Worship Volunteer Sign-Up

1. Hand Hygiene: In light of updates for Holy Communion and Offering, please continue to practice good hand hygiene, taking advantage of the hand sanitizers placed around the sanctuary.

Pastor Annie strongly encourages everyone who is eligible to do so, to receive a vaccine.
