Hear Ye, Hear Ye,
 An Announcement on Announcements

We are going to try a slightly new style for our announcements time on Sundays. Starting August 26th HOPE church business/events will continue to be announced at the end of service, but with the desire to keep them short. Outside announcements, such as community events, should be submitted for inclusion in This Week at Hope, and if appropriate, the bulletin. The reason for this change is because sometimes Sunday announcement time has stretched a bit long. This modification is a compromise between members who appreciate hearing about the many volunteer events available and those who prefer the worship service conclude on a spiritual note. Let's give this format a try for a few months and see how it goes.

HOPE Book Clubs

HOPE's Evening Book Club will meet Monday September 24th at Gwen & Ed Paulson's home to discuss "Neither Wolf Nor Dog" by Kent Nerburn. This Book draws the reader deep into the world of an Indian elder known only as Dan. It's a world of Indian towns, white roadside cafes, and abandoned roads that swirl with the memories of the Ghost Dance and Sitting Bull. Readers meet vivid characters like Jumbo, a 400-pound mechanic, and Annie, an 80-year-old Lakota woman living in a log cabin. Threading through the book is the story of two men struggling to find a common voice. Neither Wolf nor Dog takes readers to the heart of the Native American experience. As the story unfolds, Dan speaks eloquently on the difference between land and property, the power of silence, and the selling of sacred ceremonies. This edition features a new introduction by the author. This is a sobering, humbling, cleansing, loving book, one that every American should read."

Join us outdoors at HOPE
