A FAMILY DEVOTIONAL FOR LIFE DURING COVID-19

Many of us have been living in a new reality for the past 8 weeks.

We have practiced physical distancing to the best of our ability.

Our kids have continued their education through hours and days of screen time.

Parents have juggled platefuls of expectations and feel like they're not doing anything well.

Those who live alone feel even more isolated.

Many worship services have moved online and there are now deep divides among religious leaders over the "right" way to conduct worship.

Government leaders & virology experts are beginning the hard work of discerning the best way for us to take baby steps back to normal.

It is all an exercise of faith.

We are people of faith.

In the face of heartache, we have faith.

In the wake of confusion, we have faith.

In the turmoil of indecision, we have faith.

In the mundane every day, we have faith.

As we take our first steps to get back to normal, it is going to be hard to have restraint and to have patience.

And what do we turn to when things are hard? Faith.

Faith in Jesus.

Faith that is a free gift from God. Faith that comes to us in the rushing wind and the stillness of the Spirit.

Faith, no matter how small, can move mountains. It's going to be a hard process.

We are in this, with God, together.

SHARE

your highs and lows

What was the best thing that happened to you today? What was the worst thing that happened to you today? You can share more than one good thing or bad thing, but this is about connecting with one another and talking about your day.

READ

a Bible verse or story

Each day, there will be a few verses or a short Bible story to read for the day. What did you hear in the story? What was your favorite part? How does this story show God's love?

TALK

about how the Bible reading might relate to your highs and lows

Listen for how God cares for those in the story and how those in the story respond to God and even thank God! How can you respond to God? What are some things you want to say, 'thank you!' to God for entrusting to you?

PRAY

for one another's highs and lows

Pray with one another and for one another. Pray that each of you learn to listen to God when God is guiding you.

BLESS

one another

Trace the sign of the cross on one another's foreheads and say, "(Name), you are known and loved by God." Or, "(Name), you are a child of God." Or, you can make up something new each night! What are different ways you can bless one another and remind yourselves that you are protected by God?
