

This Week at HOPE November 2, 2023

On Sunday, October 29th we were invited to bring forward our 2024 financial commitments for joining God in the ministry here at HOPE Lutheran. In addition to blessing our commitments we were also given space to name our “Pie in the Sky” ministry dreams for 2024!

What dreams has God laid on your heart for our ministry at HOPE in 2024 and beyond?

How might God be using your individual passions, gifts, and financial contributions to make those dreams a reality?

If you were not part of in-person worship last Sunday, email Pastor Annie your “Pie in the Sky” hope at hopelutheranpastor.rf@gmail.com.

If you have not already done so, please follow this link to the 2024 HOPE Commitment Card or you can use the QR code:

Naming your commitment will help guide our Ministry Teams and Ministry Council in setting our collective ministry goals for 2024! I am excited to pair our learning from our Fall Cottage Meetings and our Grace In Action Stewardship focus in discovering, naming, and planning for what God is up to at HOPE this coming year and beyond!

You are blessed to be a blessing of Grace in Action for our world!

Pastor Annie Ladnier

Native American Heritage Month

Did you know that November is Native American Heritage Month? This is an opportunity for us to get to know more about our indigenous neighbors and how God is at work among their communities. Our native neighbors have rich gifts to share with us as it relates to our understanding of Creator God and our call to be part of Christ's reconciliation work for the whole world.

It is also a time for us to learn how to be better neighbors to our indigenous siblings. Yesterday, I received this article from the Wisconsin Council of Churches that I found helpful: 5 Commitments for Native American Heritage Month by Kaitlin Curtice.

In September, the Northwest Synod of WI hosted Vance Blackfox, the Director of Indigenous Ministries and Tribal Relations as our speaker for our Fall Ministry Retreat. Vance shared about indigenous theology and it was an eye-opening and thought provoking presentation. You can learn more about Vance's and the ELCA's work HERE.

On Sunday, November 12th Pastor Sara Villareal Bishop, the Synod Advocate for Right Relationships will be with us to share more about the ELCA's Truth and Healing Movement, and help us discover what our role in this work might be. She will share some background on the 2023 Synod Assembly Land Acknowledgement Resolution and what our faithful response to that resolution might be. We will have two opportunities to learn with Pastor Sara during the sermon and an adult forum following worship that Sunday! I hope you can join in this meaningful time together!

For further reading/learning here are 2 more personal/synod recommendations:

For a Non-Fiction read: Unsettling Truths: The Ongoing, Dehumanizing Legacy of the Doctrine of Discovery by Mark Charles and Soong-Chan Rah.

For a Fiction read that has connections to our region of the country: The Firekeeper's Daughter by Angeline Boulley

MANY THANKS TO ALL WHO MADE OUR TRUNK OR TREAT POSSIBLE!

A big word of thanks to all who decorated a trunk for HOPE's Trunk or Treat event on a chilly Sunday evening, October 29. The trunks were great and everyone had a fun time! Thank you to all who donated candy, helped get our decorations up, and attended the event as well! It was a great evening welcoming all sorts of ghouls, goblins, dinosaurs, elephants, story book characters and more! An estimated 200 guests came for the event.

First Sunday of the Month Special Collections

The River Falls School District has 112 children signed up for the Backpack Program this year. This program falls under the auspices of Our Neighbors' Place and is primarily funded by The Black Tie Affair held every April and donations. It does not receive any help from the River Falls Food Pantry.

Therefore, the Mission Ministry through HOPE would like to start collecting donations for the Backpack Program on the first Sunday of each month alternating with the Food Pantry.

The Magic Box works in the same manner as for the Food Pantry, whereas each dollar magically will have $5 of purchasing power. The next opportunity will be November 6, when your generous donations will support the Backpack Program.
